NATIONAL ARCHITECT

A newsletter for NCARB-certified architects

MAY 2020

FEATURE STORY

Ensuring Long-Term Livability Through Resilient Urban Design »

Learn how resilient design is currently addressing coastal flooding, mobility, and sustainability worldwide.

BLOG

Licensing Boards Are Open—Get the Latest Updates for Your Jurisdiction »

State boards are reviewing a number of policies to provide flexibility during this time, including renewal deadlines, continuing education requirements, and open meeting acts. Plus, learn how NCARB is working to provide you with the services you need.

Spring Clean Your NCARB Record »

Take the time to review the information in your NCARB Record to ensure it's current.

SUPERVISOR'S CORNER

Navigating the AXP During the Coronavirus Outbreak »

Make sure to share these six helpful tips with your candidate so they can continue to successfully gain experience and stay on top of the latest exam updates your candidate should know.

FREE CONTINUING EDUCATION

Take time to complete your CE requirements by taking one or more self-study courses from the comfort of your home. Check out our latest CE course:

Building Envelopes Part VII »

Analyze two case study buildings and document actual operational performance results of improved building envelope design strategies.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Are you interested in shaping the regulation of architecture? By serving on your local licensing board, you can impact the future of our profession. The following boards are currently seeking volunteer architects and members of the public:

- Maine
- Oregon
- Pennsylvania
- Wisconsin

Get involved »

National Council of Architectural Registration Boards
1401 H Street NW Suite 500
Washington, DC 20005